REPORT ON REVIEW OF INTERIM FINANCIAL INFORMATION

To the Board of Governors of the Asian Infrastructure Investment Bank:

Introduction

We have reviewed the interim financial information set out on pages 1 to 47, which comprises the condensed statement of financial position of the Asian Infrastructure Investment Bank as of June 30, 2022 and the condensed statement of comprehensive income, the condensed statement of changes in equity and the condensed statement of cash flows for the six-month period then ended and notes, comprising significant accounting policies and other explanatory information. Management is responsible for the preparation and presentation of this condensed interim financial information in accordance with International Accounting Standard 34 "Interim Financial Reporting". Our responsibility is to express a conclusion on this condensed interim financial information based on our review.

Scope of Review

We conducted our review in accordance with International Standard on Review Engagements 2410, "Review of Interim Financial Information Performed by the Independent Auditor of the Entity". A review of interim financial information consists of making inquiries, primarily of persons responsible for financial and accounting matters, and applying analytical and other review procedures. A review is substantially less in scope than an audit conducted in accordance with International Standards on Auditing and consequently does not enable us to obtain assurance that we would become aware of all significant matters that might be identified in an audit. Accordingly, we do not express an audit opinion.

Conclusion

Based on our review, nothing has come to our attention that causes us to believe that the condensed interim financial information is not prepared, in all material respects, in accordance with International Accounting Standard 34 "Interim Financial Reporting".

ECL allowance	(317,229)	(175,901)
Net carrying amount	14,427,585	12,245,887

Loan investments are carried at amortized cost. At initial recognition, loan investments are measured at fair value using the assumptions market participants of either sovereign-backed or nonsovereign-backed projects would use when pricing the loan assets. The market where the Bank enters into such transactions is considered to be the principal market. The transaction price normally represents the fair value of loans at their initial recognition.

All sovereign-backed loans to eligible members are subject to the same pricing, taking into account the “preferred creditor status” and other terms giving the Bank rights more favorable than those available to commercial creditors. The Bank applies commercial pricing practices to nonsovereign-backed loans. The Bank has no intention to sell sovereign-backed loans, nor does it believe there is a secondary market for such loans.

The Bank began offering variable spread loans in 2019 where the lending rate consists of a variable reference rate and a variable spread. The variable spread consists of a fixed contractual lending spread and maturity premium along with a variable borrowing cost margin. The reference rate and the borrowing cost margin are determined at each interest rate reset date and are applicable for the following six months. The borrowing cost margin is based on the cost of the underlying funding for these loans at the time of the reset. As at June 30, 2022, USD8,035.73 million of the total carrying amount of the Bank’s loans are variable spread loans (Dec. 31, 2021: USD6,436.65 million).

As at June 30, 2022, USD323.00 million of the total carrying amount matures within 12 months (Dec. 31, 2021: USD287.42 million).

Interest from borrowings was calculated based on outstanding balances of the borrowings and coupon rates and presented as interest expense in the Statement of Comprehensive Income.

C14 Derivatives

As at June 30, 2022, the Bank has entered into several interest rate swap, foreign exchange forward and cross currency swap contracts. The Bank makes use of derivatives primarily to hedge the Bank's borrowings, so as to convert issuance proceeds into the currency and interest rate structure sought by the Bank. The Bank also uses derivatives to manage the net interest rate and foreign exchange risks arising from its financial assets including, but not limited to, loans, certificates of deposit and bond investments.

Derivative contracts are financial instruments valued at each reporting date using valuation techniques that consider observable market data such as yield curves, interest rates, and foreign currency rates. Net interest paid or received on these derivative contracts is included within the net gain on financial instruments.

The Bank requires collateral in the form of cash against the exposures to derivative counterparties. The Bank records cash collateral in respect of the interest rate swaps and cross currency swaps based on the fair value of the swaps. This amount is presented separately in the Bank's Statement of Financial Position as the cash flows are not applied towards the settlement of net interest payments. The collateral would only be applied against amounts due in the event that some or all the corresponding swaps are terminated early, including, but not limited to, as a result of a default by the relevant counterparty. As at June 30, 2022, the Bank has received cash collateral of USD139.75 million (Note C15) (Dec. 31, 2021: USD165.76 million) from the swap counterparties, and has paid cash collateral of USD1,484.24 million (Note C12) (Dec. 31, 2021: USD464.95 million) to the swap counterparties.

Due to the collateral arrangements in the Bank's derivatives contracts, the counterparty valuation adjustment ("CVA") and debt valuation adjustment ("DVA") do not have a material impact on the derivative valuations as at June 30, 2022 and Dec. 31, 2021.

As at June 30, 2022, the Bank makes use of derivatives with notional amount of USD28,208.37 million to hedge the borrowings with carrying amount of USD20,729.78 million. The Bank enters into derivatives with notional amount of USD1,691.58 million to hedge loans with carrying amount of USD1,607.61 million. The Bank makes use of derivatives with notional amount of USD215 million to hedge the Investment Operation fixed-income portfolio with carrying amount of USD229.54 million. Derivatives with notional amount of USD5,506.71 million are used to hedge financial instruments in Treasury Liquidity portfolio. The Bank's risk exposures have been well managed; therefore, the respective profit and loss are effectively hedged on a net basis.

C17 Reserves

Based on Article 18.1 of the AOA, the Board of Governors shall determine at least annually what part of the net income of the Bank shall be allocated, after making provision for reserves, to retained earnings or other purposes and what part, if any, shall be distributed to the members.

C18 Distribution

Retained earnings as at June 30, 2022 are USD805.24 million (Dec. 31, 2021: USD876 million). For the six months ended June 30, 2022, USD1.32 million (for the six months ended June 30, 2021: USD2.85 million) of retained earnings has been transferred to the reserve for accretion of the paid-in capital receivables.

No dividends were declared during the reporting period.

C19 Unconsolidated structured entities

Special Funds established and administered by the Bank based on Article 17.1 of the AOA are unconsolidated structured entities for accounting purposes. Consistent with Article 10 of the Bank's AOA, the resources of the Special Funds shall at all times and in all respects be held, used, committed, invested or otherwise disposed of entirely separately from the Bank's ordinary resources.

The objective of the Project Preparation Special Fund is to support and facilitate preparatory activities during the preparation and early implementation of projects, on a grant basis, for the benefit of one or more members of the Bank that, at the time when the decision to extend the grant is made by the Bank, are classified as recipients of financing from the International Development Association ("IDA"), and other members of the Bank with substantial development needs and capacity constraints.

The resources of the Project Preparation Special Fund consist of: (a) amounts accepted from any member of the Bank, any of its political or administrative sub-divisions, or any entity under the control of the member or such sub-divisions or any other country, entity or person approved by the President may become a contributor to the Special Funds; (b) income derived from investment of the resources of the Special Funds; and (c) funds reimbursed to the Special Funds, if any.

The objective of the Special Fund Window under the COVID-19 Crisis Recovery Facility was to reduce the burden of AIIB's lower-income members seeking financing under the COVID-19 Crisis Recovery Facility. It was funded by the amounts transferred by the Bank from its Project Preparation Special Fund. On March 23, 2022, AIIB Board of Directors approved the renaming of the Special Fund Window under the COVID-19 Crisis Recovery Facility as the Special Fund Window for Less Developed Members ("Special Fund Window") and the revision of the applicable Rules and Regulations. With this approval, Special Fund Window will serve a broadened scope with new contributions once new contributions are received. The Special Fund Window will provide interest rate buy-down to eligible sovereign-backed financing aligned with AIIB's Corporate Strategy in eligible members according to the approved Rules and Regulations.

Resources from the Global Infrastructure Facility and MCDF Finance Facility are administrated in two separate special funds (i.e., the GIF Special Fund and the MCDF Special Fund, respectively).

There have been no other material events since the reporting date that would require disclosure or adjustment to these financial statements.

D Financial Risk Management

D1 Overview

The Bank adopts a proactive and comprehensive approach to risk management that is instrumental to the Bank's financial viability and success in achieving its mandate. The ability to identify, mitigate, and manage risk begins with the Bank's policies established with a strong risk culture. In addition to establishing appropriate risk parameters and a thorough and robust project review and monitoring process, the risk management function provides independent oversight of credit and other investment risk, market risk, liquidity risk, counterparty credit risk, model risk, operational risk, and compliance risk in the Bank's activities. It is also designed to manage assets and liabilities to minimize the volatility in equity value and to maintain sufficient liquidity.

For further information, please refer to the accompanying notes D Financial Risk Management included in the Bank's financial statements for the year ended Dec. 31, 2021.

D2 Market risk

IBOR reform

In Aug. 2020, International Accounting Standards Board ("IASB") issued Interest Rate Benchmark Reform ("IBOR Reform") — Phase 2 (Amendments to IFRS 9, IAS 39, IFRS 7, IFRS 4 and IFRS 16), which were mandatorily effective for annual reporting period beginning on Jan. 1, 2021.

The "Phase 2" amendments address issues that arise upon replacing the existing interest rate benchmark with the alternative interest rates and introduces additional disclosure requirements. "Phase 2" Amendments provide key relief that for instruments measured using amortized cost measurement, the amendments provide a practical expedient to account for these changes in the basis for determining contractual cash flows as a result of interest rate benchmark reform. Under the practical expedient, entities will account for these changes by updating the effective interest rate using the guidance in paragraph B5.4.5 of IFRS 9 without the recognition of an immediate gain or loss. This practical expedient applies only to such a change and only to the extent that it is necessary as a direct consequence of interest rate benchmark reform, and the new basis for determining the contractual cash flows is economically equivalent to the previous basis.

AIIB is exposed to interest rate benchmarks such as interbank offered rates across various modalities. The majority of loan investments issued by the Bank are subject to floating base rate while AIIB also issues bonds in various currencies and swapped bond proceeds into floating rate based liabilities.

D Financial Risk Management

The interest rate swaps and cross currency swaps, taken against all new bond issuances, have been in reference to SOFR since 2021. In addition, local currency loans may be funded through cross-currency swaps from US dollars into the local currency.

In March 2021, the UK Financial Conduct Authority (“FCA”) announced the dates that panel bank submissions for all LIBOR settings will cease, after which representative LIBOR rates will no longer be available:

- immediately after Dec. 31, 2021, in the case of all Sterling, EURO, Swiss Franc and Japanese Yen settings, and the 1-week and 2-month US Dollar settings; and
- immediately after June 30, 2023, in the case of the remaining US Dollar settings.

The reform aims to achieve a smooth transition to alternative benchmark rates, however it continues to face numerous uncertainties. A disorderly transition would present systemic risks and idiosyncratic risks for market participants and could have negative implications for borrowers.

The Bank's principal exposures that are affected by IBOR Reform have been identified as loan investments and derivatives as referred to in Notes C8 and C14, respectively.

AIIB has established an IBOR transition governance structure and an active working group to execute the transition plan. AIIB is engaging with existing sovereign and nonsovereign borrowers to transition existing contracts. In Dec. 2020, AIIB's Board of Directors approved amendments to the General Conditions for Sovereign-backed Loans (“General Conditions”), which allowed for the standardization of transition language. The revised transition language was applied to all future sovereign loans and was introduced across the existing sovereign-backed loan portfolio by means of amendment agreements (in the form of omnibus amendments that covered all of the current loan portfolio of a particular borrower with the Bank). In Oct. 2021, AIIB's Board of Directors approved policy changes and changes to the General Conditions to introduce SOFR regulations. The revised General Conditions would apply to all variable spread loans from Jan. 1, 2022, and voluntary as of Oct. 22, 2021 until Dec. 31, 2021. Changes to the General Conditions also involved introducing regulations to allow borrowers to convert variable reference rates to fixed reference rates. The ability to convert will allow borrowers paying a fixed or variable spread over a floating reference rate (i.e., SOFR) to convert the floating reference rate to a fixed rate. Thereafter, the borrower(s) would pay the respective fixed or variable spread over the newly set fixed base rate for a period determined by the borrower. The ability to convert the underlying reference rate to a fixed rate can benefit sovereign-backed borrowers who prefer to avoid exposure to SOFR rates. Borrowers may also have other reasons to elect the newly offered conversion to fixed underlying rate. The Bank will continue to collaborate with peer institutions and market participants to mitigate potential financial and operational risks, determine details of new products and set the Bank's asset liability management strategy.

The following table contains details of the main financial instruments that the Bank holds as at June 30, 2022 which reference USD LIBOR and have not yet transitioned to SOFR:

	Carrying amount/ Notional amount as at June 30, 2022	Carrying amount/ Notional amount as at Dec. 31, 2021
Non-derivative assets and liabilities at carrying amount

- Bond investments – Investment operations portfolio	54,239	60,450
Non-derivative assets	6,398,114	11,078,974
Derivatives at notional amount

Derivatives	10,514,770	16,407,250
Loan commitment	5,201,572	9,461,028

The Bank has sent transition notices to its sovereign borrowers for their variable spread loans, informing them of the selection of SOFR as the replacement reference rate to LIBOR and the related amendments to the provisions of the loan agreement, and the date of transition. During the same period, the Bank executed basis swaps to transform a portion of its LIBOR liabilities from pay LIBOR to pay SOFR, to maintain, approximately, a matched balance of LIBOR liabilities and LIBOR assets. As at June 30, 2022, the Bank still had fixed spread loans as sovereign-backed loans on a LIBOR reference rate (matched by respective LIBOR liabilities, as stated) and those loans will transition to SOFR in the second half of 2023 following a transition notification sent to the borrowers, as established in the Bank's General Conditions. Nonsovereign loans on a LIBOR reference rate will be transitioned to SOFR by signing amendment agreements over the course of 2022 and the first half of 2023. This is in line with the Bank's defined nonsovereign transition strategy, as part of which the Bank has adopted Term SOFR as an additional risk-free rate for nonsovereign borrowers from June 2022. As for the remaining swaps on LIBOR, they will follow the ISDA protocol and remain on LIBOR until its cessation in June 2023. For bond investments in the liquidity portfolio and investment operations portfolio, the transition to SOFR will proceed according to the fallback provisions of each position.

E Fair Value Disclosures

The majority of the Bank's assets and liabilities in the Statement of Financial Position are financial assets and financial liabilities. Fair value measurement of nonfinancial assets and nonfinancial liabilities do not have a material impact on the Bank's financial position and operations, taken as a whole.

The Bank does not have any financial assets or financial liabilities subject to nonrecurring fair value measurements for the six months ended June 30, 2022 (for the six months ended June 30, 2021: none).

The fair value of the Bank's financial assets and financial liabilities are determined as follows:

- If traded in active markets, fair values of financial assets and financial liabilities with standard terms and conditions are determined with reference to quoted market bid prices and ask prices, respectively.
- If not traded in active markets, fair values of financial assets and financial liabilities are determined in accordance with generally accepted pricing models or discounted cash flow analysis using prices from observable current market transactions for similar instruments or using unobservable inputs relevant to the Bank's assessment.

Fair value hierarchy

The Bank classifies financial assets and financial liabilities into the following three levels based on the extent to which inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value of the financial assets and financial liabilities are observable:

- Level 1: Fair value measurements are those derived from quoted prices (unadjusted) in an active market for identical assets or liabilities;
- Level 2: Fair value measurements are those derived from inputs other than quoted included within Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly (that is, as prices) or indirectly (that is, derived from prices); and
- Level 3: Fair value measurements are based on models, and unobservable inputs are significant to the entire measurement.

E Fair Value Disclosures

Financial assets and financial liabilities not measured at fair value on the Statement of Financial Position

The table below summarizes the carrying amounts and fair values of those financial instruments not measured in the Statement of Financial Position at their fair value:

	June 30, 2022		Dec. 31, 2021
	Carrying amount	Fair value	Carrying amount	Fair value
Financial assets
- Term deposits	8,959,294	8,959,294	11,748,908	11,748,290
- Loan investments, at amortized cost	14,427,585	14,363,622	12,245,887	12,062,608
- Bond investments, at amortized cost	3,992,234	3,790,366	2,495,119	2,478,349
- Paid-in capital receivables	327,727	324,788	303,695	305,387
Total financial assets	27,706,840	27,438,070	26,793,609	26,594,634
Financial liabilities
- Borrowings	701,298	698,869	700,418	701,514
Total financial liabilities	701,298	698,869	700,418	701,514

As at June 30, 2022, other than those disclosed above, the Bank's balances of financial instruments not measured at fair value but with short-term maturity approximate their fair values.

Fair value of loan investments and paid-in capital receivables measured at amortized cost has been calculated using Level 3 inputs by discounting the cash flows at a current interest rate applicable to each loan and paid-in capital receivable.

The significant input used in the fair value of loan investments are risk-free rate, credit default swap spreads, expected recovery rate and foreign exchange rates. Management makes certain assumptions about the unobservable inputs to the model. These are regularly assessed for reasonableness and impact on the fair value of loans. An increase in the level of forecast cash flows in subsequent periods would lead to an increase in the fair value and an increase in the discount rate used to discount to forecast cash flow would lead to a decrease in the fair value of loans.

Fair value of bond investments held at amortized cost are generally based upon quoted market prices, if available. If the market prices are not readily available, fair values are estimated using either values obtained from independent parties offering pricing services or adjusted quoted market prices of comparable investments or using the discounted cash flow methodology.

Fair value of borrowings held at amortized cost are generally based upon quoted market prices, if available. If the market prices are not readily available, fair values are determined using discounted cash flow models.

The fair value gains or losses are attributable to the change in unrealized gains or losses relating to those financial assets held at the end of the reporting period. For the six months ended June 30, 2022, the realized gains arising from the Bank's Level 3 financial assets amounting to USD5.6 million (for the six months ended June 30, 2021: USD1.7 million).

The MMFs' shares are not traded in any market. The fair value of the MMFs is derived from that of the net assets value. Certificates of deposit, External Managers Program, bond investments and commercial paper have been valued at instrument level, adopting either discounted cash flow method based on observable market input, or obtained from market prices. Derivative instruments and borrowings have been valued using discounted cash flow methodology based on observable market inputs. Discounted cash flow valuation technique is mainly used for the valuation of the underlying assets of the LP Funds and others, and investment in trust. The unobservable inputs mainly include weighted average cost of capital, liquidity discount and projected cash flows. The fair value of the investment in the LP funds and others, and investment in trust is based on an adjusted net assets method.

There has been no transfer among Level 1, Level 2 and Level 3 during the six months ended June 30, 2022 (for the year ended Dec. 31, 2021: none).
