ASIAN INFRASTRUCTURE INVESTMENT BANK

Rajat Misra

Director General, Public Sector Clients Department Southeast and Director General, Public Sector Clients Department South

Rajat Misra is Director General, Public Sector Clients Department Southeast and Public Sector Clients Department South. He is responsible for managing the Bank's investment operations with public sector clients in South Asia (except Afghanistan and Pakistan), Southeast Asia and the Pacific region, the Mekong region, and Sub-Saharan Africa. Prior to this position, Misra held several managerial roles at AIIB, most recently as Director General, Public Sector Clients Department (Region 1). Before joining AIIB in April 2017, Misra spent 18 years at the investment banking arm of the State Bank of India (SBI). He was also Director and Investment Committee member at SBI Group—Department for International Development Fund for Infrastructure. Misra started his career as a research and development engineer at Bharat Heavy Electricals Limited, a power equipment manufacturing company. He holds a postgraduate degree in business management from the Xavier School of Management, India, and a bachelor's degree in engineering from the Indian Institute of Technology (IIT), Varanasi, India. He also attended the Executive Program in Infrastructure at the Kennedy School, Harvard University, United States. Misra is from India.